

PRIZE OF THE PONTIFICAL ACADEMIES 2016

The Pontifical Academy of Fine Arts and Letters of the Virtuosi at the Pantheon has announced the contest to award the Prize of the Pontifical Academies 2016, a sum of Euro 20,000.00.

The 2016 edition is open to young artists and institutions working in the fields of literature, poetry and music.

Their work must contribute to the development of Christian humanism and its artistic expressions.

Individual candidates should be aged 25-40.

Institutions should have been involved in formative activities for not more than 20 years.

Applications close on Saturday 14 May 2016.

For full details see the regulations below: